

WHAT OUR ADVERTISERS SAY

“At least once a week, I run into other agents, friends, or neighbors in my community who tell me they saw my ad in Katonah Connect. I advertise in other publications as well, but people only mention my ad in Katonah Connect. The magazine’s beautiful, upscale layout really makes my ad stand out.”

“We love advertising with Katonah Connect because of the local community and loyal readership they have built. Katonah Connect gives us the opportunity to keep our community in the loop with what’s new at Country Willow, as well as educating us on what’s going on in our neighborhood!”

“Houlihan Lawrence continually looks for ways to connect and engage with the community. Katonah Connect does just that.

Our brokerage, agents, and partners strive to provide a unique, trusted and knowledgeable experience and advertising in the magazine allows us to demonstrate that value. The publication is a welcomed addition to the community as well as to our business.

The exposure and feedback have been positive, and we look forward to continuing our collaboration in the future.”

“It’s all in the name! Katonah Connect. Connect - Bring Together, Unite.

Gia, Justin and their team are connectors; bringing together our incredible small businesses, entrepreneurs, non-profits and community movers and shakers. Their mission aligns closely with ours at the Bedford Playhouse, as they engage our wonderful community through their original storytelling.

We are thankful for their partnership and for their continued commitment to sharing the story of the Playhouse with our neighbors.”

“As someone with a successful business in music and art, an ad in my favorite local magazine, Katonah Connect, is both advantageous to me and to the sustainability of this vital community resource. My guitars are sold locally and globally, and Katonah Connect has been instrumental every step of the way in increasing the exposure that my guitars receive.”

“After only a week of advertising with Katonah Connect, I got an email from a new client looking for an interior designer. KC is powerful!”
