LAUGH, CRY AND HOPE WITH THE MUSICAL "WAITRESS" AT A.C.T. OF CT
May 29 - June 22; 36 Old Quarry Road, Ridgefield, CT; (475) 215-5497; actofct.org
"Waitress" is a heartfelt musical that tells the story of Jenna, a talented pie maker stuck in a small-town diner and an unhappy marriage. Dreaming of a better life, Jenna finds solace and creativity in baking pies, pouring her hopes and frustrations into each recipe. With a soulful score by Sara Bareilles, "Waitress" explores themes of empowerment, self-discovery, and the healing power of love and friendship. From its bittersweet moments to its sweet triumphs, "Waitress" serves up a deliciously uplifting tale that resonates with audiences long after the final curtain falls. PG-13.

CELEBRATE LOCAL BUSINESSES AT NEXT STOP... BEDFORD HILLS
May 15; Bedford Hills Community House; 6-9 p.m.; discoveredbedfordhills.org
Help the newly formed Bedford Hills Business Association (BHBA) honor five legacy Bedford Hills business leaders at a reception style-event showcasing goods from local businesses. Part of a broader effort to support economic vitality within Bedford Hills, NEXT STOP... BEDFORD HILLS will feature small plates, live music and an artwork auction featuring Jose Mari's Bedford Hills-inspired pieces framed by The Paint Box. Help us celebrate some of the OG businesses: Aldo's Barbershop, Bedford Stone & Masonry, JC Electric, The Paint Box and Robert M. Spano Heating and Plumbing. Tickets are $50.

OUR PARTNERS

SHOP FOR FOOD, BEVERAGES, FLOWERS & MORE AT THE NORTH SALEM FARMERS MARKET
May 10, June 14, July 12, Aug. 9, Sept. 13, Oct. 11; Back Street, Croton Falls; 9 a.m. - 2 p.m.; northsalemfarmersmarket.org
The North Salem Farmers Market returns on May 10 and will run every second Saturday through October. The market features 30+ vendors, live music curated by Ian Hendrickson-Smith (The Rows, Uncle Chest), lunch options, seating, and kids activities. This is more than a market—it's a monthly celebration of food, farming and community. You'll find everything you need, including local organic fruit & veggies, meat, fish, poultry, mushrooms, bagels, breads & pastries, wild-fermented cider, spirits, pickles, mustards, honey, dumplings, flowers, native plants and more. Plus, the parking is easy and ADA accessible, or take the train and walk right into the market.

ROCK ON AT THE 19TH ANNUAL PLEASANTVILLE MUSIC FESTIVAL
July 12; Parkway Field, Pleasantville; pleasantvillemusicfestival.com
Join thousands of your closest friends/fellow music lovers for a day of world-class music, food, drinks, kids activities, and crafts & products available for purchase. Plus meet local charities and feel good about attending a zero-waste festival. This year's lineup includes the beloved California rock band Doves, an indie-pop/funk-infused group called Bermuda Search Party, some "jam-busting" blues from Chris Bergson Band, a gospel/R&B/soul/pop/hip hop singer Nikki Hill, country singer Jessica Lynn, the band Pleasantville, and more. Get your tickets before the June 28 price increase.

VIEW STUNNING BASKETS AT JEREMY FREY'S FIRST MAJOR RETROSPECTIVE
June 5 - Sept. 7; I Museum Dr., Greenwich; (203) 869-0376; brucemuseum.org
The first major retrospective of the artist's work, "Jeremy Frey: Woven" presents a comprehensive survey of Frey's prolific career spanning more than two decades. A seventh-generation Passamaquoddy basket maker and one of the most celebrated Indigenous weavers in the country, Frey pushes the creative limits of the medium, producing ambitious and meticulously crafted baskets that reflect his remarkable technical skill. Featuring over fifty baskets made of raw materials such as sweetgrass, cedar, spruce root, and porcupine quills, Woven offers visitors an opportunity to see a visionary artist at the height of his craft. Learn more at BruceMuseum.org.
